

" 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.' This is the first and most important command. And the second command is like the first: 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.' All the law and the writings of the prophets depend on these two commands."
Matthew 22:37-40

"But blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose confidence is in him. They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit."
Jeremiah 17:7-8 (NIV)

"For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but a spirit of power and love and a sound mind."
2 Timothy 1:7 (Phillips)

"Then the Lord said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites to go back and set up their camp facing Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. Set up your camp facing north—by the sea.

Pharaoh will think, 'The Israelites are just wandering around. The desert is blocking their escape.' I will make Pharaoh so stubborn that he will pursue them. Then, because of what I do to Pharaoh and his entire army, I will receive honor, and the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord.” So that is what the Israelites did.

When Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) was told that the people had fled, he and his officials changed their minds about them. They said, “What have we done? We’ve lost our slaves because we’ve let Israel go.” So Pharaoh prepared his chariot and took his army with him...

As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw that the Egyptians were coming after them. Terrified, the Israelites cried out to the Lord. They said to Moses, “Did you bring us out into the desert to die because there were no graves in Egypt? Look what you’ve done by bringing us out of Egypt! Didn’t we tell you in Egypt, ‘Leave us alone! Let us go on serving the Egyptians’? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!”

Moses answered the people, “Don’t be afraid! Stand still, and see what the Lord will do to save you today. You will never see these Egyptians again. The Lord is fighting for you! So be still!”

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to start moving. Raise your staff, stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide the water. Then the Israelites will go through the sea on dry ground.” Exodus 14

“When I am afraid, I will put my confidence in God. Yes, I will trust the promises of God.” Psalm 56:3-4

“Then the Lord said to Moses, ‘Quit praying and get the people moving! Forward march!’” Exodus 14:15 (LB)

“...the Lord who created you says, ‘Do not be afraid—I will save you. I have called you by name—you are mine. When you pass through deep waters, I will be with you; your troubles will not overwhelm you. When you pass through fire, you will not be burned; the hard trials that come will not hurt you.’”

Isaiah 43:1-2 (GNT)

The opposite of fear is love

“There is no fear in love. Instead, perfect love drives fear away. Fear has to do with being punished. The one who fears does not have perfect love.” 1 John 4:18

The opposite of fear is love

It is never too late to be brave!

I, the LORD your God, will make up for the losses caused by those swarms and swarms of locusts.”

Joel 2:25 (CEV)

The opposite of fear is love

It is never too late to be brave!

Love gives others courage
